

A Conversation about Indigenous Inclusion

TUESDAY
SEPT. 28
2021

Human Resources Services, in collaboration with the Equity and Inclusion Office and Indigenous Link is pleased to present a facilitated conversation about Indigenous Inclusion with Chantal Fraser. This session will explore options to create a more inclusive workplace for Indigenous faculty, staff and students.

DATE: Tuesday, September 28, 2021

TIME: 1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Zoom Webinar

To discuss an individual accommodation, please contact May-Marie Duwai-Sowa, Employment Equity Specialist at:

duwaisom@mcmaster.ca

REGISTER HERE to attend this virtual session.

FACILITATOR:

Chantal Fraser, CD, MBA

Through her company, Empowered Path Inc. Chantal Fraser acts as a Thought Partner, to help people learn how to help themselves, their communities and organizations thrive. Chantal offers a variety of services including: accessible virtual career transformation coaching, and delivering Indigenous Inclusion sessions to Canadian employers from Coast to Coast to Coast, with strategic partners Indigenous Link. Chantal has Métis ancestors and is a military veteran. Lieutenant-Colonel (retired) Chantal Fraser, holds an MBA from the Royal Military College of Canada and is a recipient of the Human Resources Professional Association (HRPA) Honourary Life Award.

BRIGHTER WORLD

Equity and Inclusion Office

Human Resources