3 Who will be your beneficiaries?

! If you do not name a beneficiary, the value of your plan will be paid to your estate upon your death.

! If you designate a beneficiary to be irrevocable, you may not modify or revoke the designation without the beneficiary's consent. A beneficiary who is a minor cannot give consent.

Tell us who you want as your beneficiaries to receive the money from your RSP upon your death. All beneficiaries are revocable (meaning you can change them at any time) unless specified otherwise.

Exception – if you are a Quebec resident

If you are a Quebec resident and name your married spouse or your civil spouse as the beneficiary, the designation will be irrevocable unless you check this box:  Revocable

Name (first, last)	Relationship to you	If minor, date of birth (dd/mm/yyyy)	Percentage allocated
			Total 100%

If you want to name more than three beneficiaries, check this box and attach a separate page with the additional names and percentages.

If you name a minor as a beneficiary, you must name a trustee. A minor is a child who has not reached the legal age as defined by provincial law. A trustee can be a family member or a friend, or an institution like a bank or trust company. Do not complete the trustee information if you are a Quebec resident.

Appointing a trustee for minor beneficiaries

First name of trustee	Middle initial	Last name
Address (street number and name, apartment or suite number)
City	Province	Postal code

4 How much do you want to contribute to this plan?

! Make sure you respect your annual RRSP deduction limit. Each year, refer to your latest notice of assessment sent by the Canada Revenue Agency to confirm your maximum deductible contribution.

Indicate how much you would like to contribute via payroll deductions:

$_____ from every paycheque

By signing below, you understand and agree that:

- The information you have provided in this enrolment form is true and accurate.
- You are applying for membership in the plan, in accordance with the terms of the plan and the group contract issued to the employer by Desjardins Insurance.
- You authorize us to register your Group Retirement Savings Plan as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan under the Income Tax Act (Canada).
- You authorize your employer to act as your agent to answer any administrative questions, remit your contributions and give us directions on your behalf, if applicable.
- You authorize us to invest all contributions for this plan according to the instructions you have given us on the Your investment instructions form. If you have not provided valid investment instructions, we will invest 100% of your contributions in a default fund chosen by your employer.
- You understand that your money invested in unit value funds will vary according to market conditions.
- You may at any time change the amount of your contributions, your investment instructions, and your beneficiaries unless they are irrevocable.
- You authorize us to deduct fees from the amount standing to your credit if we have to search for you or remit your assets to an organization responsible for the application of an act regarding unclaimed property. In order to know the applicable fees, refer to the group contract issued to your employer.
- If you no longer participate in your employer's plan, and we do not receive instructions from you, you authorize us to transfer your benefit to the Desjardins Insurance Your transition plan Group RRSP or its locked-in account if applicable.
- You authorize us, during this transfer, to proceed with the registration of this Retirement Savings Plan as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan under the Income Tax Act (Canada).
- Any benefits paid under this Group RSP will be settled in accordance with the Income Tax Act (Canada) and all applicable provincial laws.

How we manage your personal information

Desjardins Insurance handles your personal information in a confidential manner. We keep your information on file so that you can benefit from our various financial services, including retirement plans, insurance, annuities and credit. Your information is consulted only by those of our employees who need to do so in the course of their work. In the course of its business, i The annuitant is the person who is entitled to receive the retirement income from this Group RSP.

Desjardins Insurance may use a service provider located outside Canada to manage personal information or for other reasons.

To find out more about the Policy governing the management and protection of personal information or how we manage personal information held outside Canada, contact our Chief Privacy Officer or visit our website at www.desjardinslifeinsurance.com.

You have the right to review your personal information in our files and correct anything that is incomplete, ambiguous or not relevant.

We may also send information on our promotions and offer new products to those on our client list. If you do not wish to receive these offers, you may have your name removed from the list.

To make changes to the items mentioned above, you must send a written request to the:

1 Your personal information

! In this form, you and your mean the person who owns the plan. We, our and us mean Desjardins Insurance. The terms employer and employee could also include an association and association member.

Group number G003908	Plan type	Social Insurance Number (SIN)
First name	Middle initial	Last name

2 How do you want to invest the contributions?

! If you do not complete this section, or the percentages you allocate do not total exactly 100%, the contributions will be invested in a default fund chosen by the employer.

You may change your investment instructions at any time by going online to dfs.ca/participant.

First, complete the Your investor profile questionnaire found in your enrolment guide. You can get a copy online at dfs.ca/participant. Then refer to Your investment funds, your way in your enrolment kit and choose one of the two options below.

Option 1 – Choose a Lifecycle Path

This is the easiest investment option – you'll automatically be assigned investments that correspond to one of the following choices. Note: If you choose this option, it will apply to all your group plans.

Choose only one fund
